

Glenn Brown & INTERGALACTIC SPIRAL

As a musician, music producer, recording engineer and studio designer, Glenn Brown has performed in Michigan for over four decades. As guitarist for the Michigan based Space/Rock band "Sonor Eclipse" (which also featured legendary bassist Bill Laswell) Glenn has worked as performer, arranger, music producer, recording engineer with artists such as: Spinal Tap, Kid Rock, Motor City Brass, Root Doctor, Detroit Symphony, Empire Brass, Root Doctor, Steppin In It, Organissimo, Airborne or Aquatic?, Madcat Ruth and countless others.

Intergalactic Spiral is a group that was formed in 2007 and features an incredible cast of Michigan Jazz & studio musicians. The group performs a unique style of improvisational Jazz-Fusion-Space-Rock that originates in a different galaxy yet also reflects the roots of Jazz/Rock Fusion.

The group features:

Glenn Brown (Guitars, Keyboards, Percussion, Moog & Buchla Modular Synthesizers)

Jim Alfredson (Keyboards, Hammond Organ, Melodica & Modular Synthesizers)

Mark Kieme (Tenor, Soprano & Baritone Saxophone, Clarinet, Bass Clarinet & Flutes)

Robert Tye (Guitars, Mandolins & Space inverter Electronics)

David Taylor (Drums & Percussion)

Chuck Bartels (Electric Bass)

There have also been guest musicians that have performed with the group in the studio and at concerts such as:

Igor Houwat (Ude) [Wisaal]

Michael List (Djembe, Tabla Drums, Percussion) [Wisaal]

Kevin Depree (Electronic and Acoustic Drums & Percussion) [SoundIsRed]

Jim Shaneberger (Electric Bass)

James Simonson (Acoustic & Electric Bass)

Brennan Andes (Bass) [Macpodz]

Joseph Gloss (Guitar) [Organissimo]

Randy Marsh (Drums & Percussion) [Organissimo]

The group has released two CDs and will soon have a third expected summer 2014.
